Special notes:

For certain income data such as household income or earnings, values above a certain point are not shown. For instance, mean household and family incomes above $200,000 are shown as "200,001" with the unit of dollars "($)" in this book. Mean earnings above $100,000 are shown as "100,001" with the unit of dollars "($)". Home values over $1,000,000 are shown as "1,000" with the unit of thousands of dollars "($000s).

If your community (e.g., Van Nuys) is not shown, chances are it's an area/postal name within a larger city (i.e. Los Angeles). Census Designated Places (CDPs) are unincorporated areas that are given an area name (e.g., Hacienda Heights). For data under the city level, please wait for ZIP Code-based data to be released by the Census Bureau.
